1.Play equipment.

The opening of the play equipment was discussed at length, the conclusion being that Parish Councillors will inspect the area to ensure all is safe, the equipment will be sprayed at regular interval with the correct solution abiding by the directive. Signage will be clearly placed at every entrance giving rules and directives from the government and TDC as to the way in which the equipment must be used. The insurance company have been contracted and their advice is that government guidelines must be adhered to.

A risk assessment has to be carried out Cllr Pearce is to undertake this. Cllr Millward is to contact the school so they are aware that the play equipment will be open and that parents are aware of the guidelines that need to be adhered to.

The annual Wicksteed inspection is to be ordered.

Proposed by Cllr Huxtable seconded by Cllr Millward, all in favour.
